Player Picks

Andy Bean

"Pittsburgh is my pick. I just think they have a better defense and that is usually what ends up working in championship games."

Ben Crenshaw

"I think a lot of people are pulling for Kurt Warner because he's been through a lot in his career. I'm kind of pulling for the Cardinals and think they might pull it out."

Birdies For Charity

The Birdies for Charity Kick Off Presentation is on February 19th at Ross Bridge! So far we have 48 charities signed up to participate in 2009. We have a goal of raising $250,000 this year and a goal of 185 charities to participate. If you know any 501c3 organization

Please help us in supporting these great establishments, as they continue to support the Regions Charity Classic and the thousands of volunteers each year!

Player Profile- Andy Bean

At the 2008 Regions Charity Classic, Andy Bean conquered the field (and the Cocina Superior Club) to win the tournament. Bean had a remarkable 2008 campaign finishing 8th on the money list and 7th in Schwab Cup points, his highest career finish to date. Andy started his 2009 campaign with a 2nd place finish at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai. We look forward to welcoming him back to Birmingham, as he tries to defend his title at the 2009 Regions Charity Classic!

We are very excited about the 2009 Regions Charity Classic, and hope to see you there as a full field of the best Champions Tour players hit the links at Ross Bridge May 13th-17th!

Sincerely,
The Regions Charity Classic Staff
